Vagabonds

We live without design
Bodies stand under the lights of small corner stores
I know we are followed

First you forget the things you need
And it goes and it goes and it goes away now
This time I'll stay
This time I'll stay

Next you forget yourself and feels
And I try and I try and I try to stand now
This time I'll stay

You think you've heard it all before the show
But you've never really seen us at all

Once you've heard it all upfront you know
Once you've heard it's a fornt, you know
That you never really knew us at all

You think you've heard it all before
Vagabonds, we're vagabonds

Vagabonds, we're vagabonds

We lived without the heights, the lights,
The truth was the only thing that you wore,
Where have you gone

If I could change
If I could change this fear I

If I could change
If I could change this fear i would

Heartbeat

What should I've seen
(on) ahead while driving down
On an empty lane

We were complete
Like a crash down on the road
Emotions overflown only headlights saw me blowing out to cold

Can't feel heart beat
Can't feel heart beat
If I'll never get a chance to say I miss you
If I'll never get a chance to say that I still do

Do you see me
As a washed out figure drawn to an empty lane
How do you feel
Are we driving apart
Just a smash into (another) a car
Or are we foot slammed on the break going back to start

Polarised

I never get myself and my beliefs
Cause all goes by so wait for me please
I never search for any enemies
So they can stay away from me

You never like the things that are free
The things you can't have
Are the ones you just need
You always feel like missing a piece
It’s just how it seems to be the promises you need

Are the ones I cannot keep

I was beaten by your man outside that day
You just stood there, and yelled his name
And I’m bleeding out my nose but it is ok
It’s polarized

Some of us are searching for gold
A tale that sells is a tale that is told
The hands are warm but heart's turning cold
Is this how I'm growing old

You only want to stay when you leave
But if you stick around
You just wanna flee
You always feel like missing a piece

The promises you need,
Are the ones I cannot keep

I was beaten by your man outside that day
You just stood there, and yelled his name
And I’m bleeding through my nose
But it is ok
It’s polarized

Campus

Arriving late as usual
Through the gate
Over the moon (and)

We got everything we need
Pockets full
Of little dreams

Unafraid we seemed
Saw the last sunbeam
Saw the sun going down
But we were up

On that friday eve
You told of your week
And when the talk was done
We fell in love

In the Campus on that night
And the Campus saw your cry

Running late as usual
Through the park
No one noticed

The hall looked different in the dark
Almost caught
You were smiling

Unafraid it seemed
Saw the last sunbeam
Saw the sun going down
But we were up

On that friday eve
sneak in to the scene and when the noise was gone we were apart

And I heard you scream in the campus on that night

In in in the morning
When the park is quiet and the hall is haunting

Heroine

After seeing someone I've never seen Somewhere I’ve never been Love feels like a heroin

First I feel so good like I should Then I get frustrated
For being misunderstood

So I wanna little bit more
It felt better before
I wanna feel you in the core,
Sure
You get a piece of my colder heart
For you its like a ticket or a golden card

When you go go go go away
I need the proof that you feel the same
I need the proof that your heart's okay
I need the proof that you want to stay

After hearing something I've never heard
Talk by the little birds
Making me unsure

And it comes so vain like cocain
Life on the fast lane
And nothing I know remains

So you wanted little bit more
It felt better before
There's someone new at you front door
You get piece of his golden heart
For you its like ticket to a whole new start

One more then everything will roll
One more and Im so close to you

When Love Became

You start the car and you try to leave
Tears in your eyes I know how you feel
This ain't the life but oh it's real
How did it come to this I mean
You scream you hate me with all your heart
Under the same roof we are apart
When love became so hard

I try to look into your eyes
But you turn the other way
Hold you in my arms
But it doesn't feel the same

You start the car and you try to leave
Tears in your eyes I know how you feel
This ain't the life but oh it's real
How did it come to this I mean
You scream you hate me with all your heart
Under the same roof we are apart

I try to look into your eyes
But you turn the other way
Hold you in my arms
But it doesn't feel the same

You start the car and you try to leave
I'm not the man that I used to be Now is no turning back I mean

I try to look into your eyes
But you turn the other way
Hold you in my arms
But it doesn't feel the same

Me by the car you hold on your life
Trying my best to pull you outside
I don't want to hurt you, but then I might Blue sense of light on this snowy site
Pulled out the gun taking off the guard
Pointing at you asking one more time

Painted Arms

Some guy with painted arms
He was coming to you
I was staying way too far

Oh now you're holding hands
You got it all worked out
And made your plans
Now, give me your advice
What happens when you meet someone right
(and) then realize
That you were so damn close

Some guy with painted arms
He was coming to you
He's taking my part, taking my part

Oh now you're holding hands
And made your plans
It's a long run

Oh now you're holding hands
Got it all worked out
And made your plans
It's a long run

Brooklyn bridge
Getting rich
Raising kids

So there, you and your love
I stumble at the start again
It's harder when I was so damn close

Some guy with painted arms
He was coming to you

Oh now you're holding hands
And made your plans
It's a long run

Even now I dream 'bout you
Even if you're doing good
And everything is just like it should be

Brooklyn bridge
Getting rich
Raising kids
And I was so damn close

Round And Round

Go on don't wait for me
'Cos tonight is not for sleep
And I don't want to leave
'Cos I don't know where I'll wake up and when I lay down it goes
Round and round goes round and round

Every night in this country
I was trying to get by
With thoughts of the brighter times

In the middle of despair
While shaking, I was thinking
This time I've had enough, I've had enough

The black river runs so deep

So I drove off the road
Lights in the trees
Led me to the beach

-Where do you think you are?

I don't know, it feels right
And hey, I am not leaving
I don't know is it right, but I am not leaving

Tonight on the seaside
Near the water, I am thinking
That this must be the place

I live for the bonfires and
The sound from the coast
Where the speakers shake ground, shake the ground

And if the quiet comes
No way, we'll turn it up again just tonight, just tonight do do it do it right

Same Sun

Keep walking on
Now the darkest clouds are gone
If there's anyone
Hear me now!

(It) took me time
To see where I was wrong
With the open heart
The eyes will follow

Under the same sun
Like strangers we're walking
Under the same sun
Here we are
Here we are alone
Alone
Under the same sun
We have to feel the way

You're a passer-by
With the same familiar smile
Shining next to me
The hours will fly

We got time
All the hollow days are gone
As of now
I'm by your side

Under the same sun
Like strangers we're walking
Under the same sun
here we are
Here we are alone
Alone
Under the same sun
we have to feel the way

All this time
I had known it all along
All this time
I had known it all along

Along, along, along

Under the same sun, same sun

Under the same sun
Like strangers we're walking
Under the same sun
I had known
Known it all along
Along
Under the same sun
We have to feel the way

The Trap

When this love will ignite first time
You won't even get to show me
They are taking you away from me they trapping

I try so hard to find
Fingers through the dark
The stars won't guide you home
And off I go

So don't lose your hope
And never give up
If we lose our home
Where would you go

They try to control
But it's never enough
If we lose our home then
Where would you go
Where would you go, my love

I heard you can't live in our town
It could be better and i know it
But it's ours and we own it
Moving on the low
Leave the door (un)locked
(it's) the only road I know
And off I go

Where
Where do we come from Here
Here we belong
And we just have to keep Living like always Forgiving
Through these days "the trap stays"

With You

I don't know what is right
Hard to try and describe
But one thing I can't deny
I feel alive

Your room on the second floor
Shoes are next to the door
And days like all before
You stand alone

But I'm on my feet to leave
You're more than I ever need
Don't let your tears take you to sleep
I'm close you see

Let your light bright the room
You're something completely new
If I can't be there with you
At least you're true

'till I'm with you
You
